MISSION NEWS

COULD THIS BE OUR LEGACY

Recently we have looked at various aspects of Overseas Mission and that is always good. However, we have to remember that here in our own town and round the community of our own Church there is also a mission field.

Please look at the Mission Board in the vestibule. There you will see a picture put together by Mark Green at what could happen to our church building and church family if we neglect our local mission opportunities.

Think about the legacy that others from Clarence Park Baptist Church have left for us over the years. What is the legacy we want to leave behind for those who come after us?

Are we being mission minded today within our own fellowship?

Are our prayers for our church family and those who live around the church strong or do we forget the importance of prayer?

As we look forward to the start of our Church activities following the summer break, please pray earnestly for the present and for the future of our fellowship.
