

The Road to Emmaus: Luke 24 v 13 – 33a

Here are three pieces of art about when Jesus walked and ate with the two disciples on the road to Emmaus.

How can the art help our understanding of the story?

The two people said

*'Were not our hearts
gradually catching fire
within us as he spoke to us on the road?'*

What do you understand by this?

Image by Lex Mckee

Image issued under CC:

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/lex-photographic/11106483545>

How does this picture help tell the story?

Maximino Cerezo Barredo (Spanish, 1932–), Emmaus, 2002. Painted mural, 200 × 190 cm.

Dining room of the Centro de Formación de Animadores, Gatun Lake, Panama.

[Image from: The Unnamed Emmaus Disciple: Mary, wife of Cleopas? – Art & Theology
\(artandtheology.org\)](http://artandtheology.org)

Jesus ate and
'broke bread'
with them.

What can we learn about sharing time,
meals and communion with others?

Barry Notes: Supper At Yummaus.

Shows a modern image of Jesus sharing communion in a KFC

Unable to contact artist for permission